CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

IMP MAKES A SHOW OF MACY.

Racing in and about Chicago came to a close yesterday at Lakeside. It was a handsome wind-up, too. The day was bright and spring-like, and the fact that Imp and Macy were to have another battle proved a great drawing card. A crowd of about 2,500 people was out. Beside the Imp-Macy race there was carded a two-mile event, and it proved a most interesting feature.

It was the third race—a handicap at eight and one-half furlongs—that brought out Imp and Macy. The betting was very heavy. The public is always willing to play Imp no matter what she has to beat or whatever her price is. She was always about 3 to 2, and at these odds a lot of money was wagered on her. Macy was heavily played, too. Mr. Schorr bet a few hundred dollars on his horse, and all the heavy bettors followed him. Al Fresco, the only other starter, opened at 6 to 1 and was backed down two points.

There was little or nothing to the race. Imp jumped into the lead at the start and just towered over the other two. She passed the stand the first time five lengths in front and held this advantage down the backstretch. On the far turn she drew farther away from Macy, increasing her lead to a dozen lengths. From the head of the stretch home McNickle eased the filly a trifle and she won with the boy looking back by eight lengths. Macy was whipped out and had all he could do to beat Al Fresco.

The judges, having the gloom of the near past in view, did not like the sudden sparkle of Imp's performance. Trainer C. E. Brossman was called into the stand. Colonel Clark talked very plainly to Brossman and informed him that it was a lucky thing for him that the season was about to close.

The two mile event was an eyeable contest. It was a real horse race from start to finish. Lucid got away in the lead but immediately dropped back and after going the first half Swordsman took up the running. His term of leadership was of short duration, however, for passing the stand and beginning on the second mile he stopped as if shot. At this point Holden let out a link on George Lee and the colt went to the front with ease. About the same time that Holden made his move Burns started up with Moncreith, and McNickle urged Lucid a trifle. Down the backstretch the pace began to get a little stiffer. Just before reaching the half mile ground the field, with the exception of Swordsman and Sunburst, was well bunched. Moncreith on the outside was shut off and Holden seeing this and going to the front on the turn tried to steal away. Lucid was hot after him, though, and for an instant, at the head of the stretch, was in front. He could not hold the lead, however, and at the furlong post it was evident that George Lee would win. He finished well in hand three open lengths in front of Moncreith, who came strong under punishment, and beat Lucid three-quarters of a length for the place. On the stretch bend Holden carried Lucid out and interfered with him a little. The colt is a moody one and this may have caused him to sulk. At any rate he quit badly. The betting on this race was lively, and the ring was hit hard. It had to pay out one, two, three, just as the prices before the race indicated. George Lee was heavily played, and after his win there was a lot of grumbling about the colt's last performance. He finished behind both Lucid and Swordsman in a mile and a half race last Friday.

Starter Dwyer made an unfortunate mistake in the second race. His work has been very good during the entire season. The race was at a mile and ten went to the post. They were a lot of bad actors but had Dwyer tried it is doubtful if he could have made a worse start. After dancing around for fourteen minutes the bunch seemed to stand still for an instant and Dwyer, touching off the machine, yelled "come on" and threw his flag. After taking the second look Dwyer saw Molo, Czarowitz and Sea Robber standing still. The crowd howled its disapproval in no measured terms.

Boaneriges, the 3 to 5 favorite for the race got away well, and, going to the front on the turn, won all the way, finishing by himself. In a hard drive Prince Blazes beat Locust Blossom for the place.

The first race was at three-quarters for two-year-olds, and Antiquary, a cast-off from T. W. Coulter's stable, won in a clever way from Mr. Johnson. The winner was a 4 to 1 chance and well played.

Dave Waldo had no trouble at all winning the fifth race. He was a 3 to 5 shot and seemed to be in a soft spot. Billy Mason headed him for an instant on the far turn, but could not stand the pressure, and when straightened away for home, Dave Waldo left his field and romped home the easiest kind of a winner.

Old David seems to be himself again and won the sixth race easily. He was a 3 to 1 chance with Sligo II, who was a 6 to 5 favorite. The latter showed in front on the bend for home, but when David was called on he galloped over Sligo and won as he chose.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A notable arrival on Monday was the famous stallion, St. Gatien, recently purchased by Mr. J. B. Haggin for $7,500. He arrived by the steamship Menominee, of the Atlantic Transport Line, after a twelve days' sea voyage from England. Looking over the sire of Meddler in Mr. J. B. Haggin's private stable in West Forty-fourth street, on Wednesday afternoon, St. Gatien looked every inch the great racehorse and sire.

A rich dark mahogany bay, almost a brown, standing very nearly sixteen hands, with both hind feet and the near forefoot white and a stripe, the stallion is a very handsome individual, as might be expected from his illustrious lineage. His powerful back, quarters and middle piece mark the weight-carrier all over, as he proved himself to be when on the English turf, while a splendid set of legs, powerful shoulders and a most intelligent looking head show the blood horse of the very highest type.

St. Gatien, although he had been on his feet for nearly two weeks, was full of life and vim on Wednesday, and did not show his age as he was led out of his box for inspection. And the veterinary who accompanied the stallion over said that he was a better sailor than himself. As he just missed coming over on the ill-fated Mohegan, his present antipathy to ocean travel is pardonable.

Foaled in 1881, St. Gatien, by Rotherhill or The Rover (pedigree of the latter is generally the one taken), out of St. Editha, by Kingley Vale, etc., carried Mr. John Hammond's colors when on the turf in many a great race, was up to high weights and could both sprint and stay. Without enumerating his performances, he ran a dead heat with Harvester in the Derby of 1884, and that year, as a three-year-old never lost a race. In 1883, as a two-year-old, he won all his races, and in 1885, at four years old, only lost one. In 1886 he was beaten but twice in his five-year-old career and was then retired to the stud, with only three defeats in four years racing. His purchase by the Austrian Government for $70,000 followed, and now Mr. William Ellison, of London, secures him for Mr. Haggin for a little over a tenth of that sum.

John Mackey will ship St. Gatien to Rancho del Paso on Saturday or Sunday of this week by the New York Central, Michigan Central, Burlington and Union Central Pacific railways to Sacramento, this being the route the yearlings came by, and they were exceedingly well cared for. St. Gatien looks full of health and has virility enough to last him ten or twelve years longer, and if he begets but one more as good as Meddler his purchase will not have been in vain.—The Spirit of the Times.

This will probably be the Wheel of Fortune's last season on the turf. Joe Harvey, her owner, has made up his mind to breed and retire her to his ranch. "I will not race her any longer than this season, and maybe not all of this," said Harvey. "I want to breed her to some good stallion and turn her out. I have been thinking about mating her to Ormonde. She ought to make a fine brood mare. She is well bred and is as sound as the day she was born. Seldom you see a horse raced as much as she has come out without a blemish. They invariably have some little fault. But she is an exception."—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

A letter from San Francisco says: "Virginia Carroll began booking the first day and has been going along very quietly ever since. The boys can't believe it's the same James. 'The climate, the climate, boys; that's it,' he replied in answer to questions about his meekness. The nearest thing to a rebuff that has been heard from him to a customer was: 'My good man, if you take that bet some place else I'll buy you a small bottle.' The tenderfoot wanted $2.50 each way on a 9 to 5 chance. He was a poolroom fiend."

A telegram received from Dr. Hagyard, who has been for several years veterinary surgeon in charge of Marcus Daly's big Montana stud, announces his safe return from his trip to England. Dr. Hagyard went over in charge of a detachment of Mr. Daly's broodmares, which will be bred to English stallions next spring. The mares taken over were Lady Reel (dam of Hamburg), Elizabeth L, La Belle, Semper Fidele, Semper Cara, Lizzie D. and Affatus.

The great Irish horse Winkfield's Pride, five years old, by Winkfield—Alimony, has been sold to M. Edmond Blanc, an eminent French breeder. He won both the Cambridgeshire and Old Cambridgeshire Handicaps, when three years old. As a four-year-old he won the Lincolnshire Handicap, was beaten by Persimmon for the Ascot Cup, won the Doucaster Cup, and the Prix du Conseil at Paris. This year his success has not been phenomenal.

The outlaws will have their innings at Wheeling, W. Va., this winter, and a meeting is scheduled to open there November 22 and run until next spring. There will be five races a day, and the purses will be $50, and, if the business warrants it, they will be increased. A foreign book will be a feature of the meeting. Edward B. Waugh will manage the track and John M. Waugh will act as secretary.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Caius, the gray son of Cavalier, will shine among the jumping brigade next season. He is being schooled over the hurdles in the infield at Latonia, and takes to the jumping game as though that had always been his "long suit." With the speed which he has on the flat the gray horse, if he acquires ability to jump in clean fashion, should prove an exceptionally good horse over the sticks next year.

BURNS' MANY EMPLOYERS.

The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes the following story concerning the entanglement of T. Burns with the various people who desire his services for the racing campaign of 1899:

"Tommy Burns, the famous light-weight jockey, now in the employ of John W. Schorr, the millionaire brewer of Memphis, bids fair to figure as the bone of contention in a big lawsuit before the advent of another racing season.

"Burns, it will be remembered, was until the first of this year under contract—a sort of apprenticeship—to Tom Hurns, an uncle by marriage. Hurns had several years before taken the boy, whose parents then, as now resided in a little town in the Dominion of Canada, under a contract in accordance with which he was to have control of the boy's services until he (Burns) should become of age. In plain English the now crack light-weight jockey was 'bound out' in apprenticeship, as it were, to his kinsman. With a natural aptitude for the work, Burns, though handicapped by having no good horses in their own stable for him to ride, began to show unusual ability in a riding way several years ago, but it is only within the past two years that he came into very great prominence.

"Early last season, so it is said, the Fleischmanns made an effort to induce Hurns to transfer to them the unfinished term of his contract for the boy's services, but though a big pecuniary inducement was held out to him, he refused to do so. At the beginning of this year, however, Hurns, who, it should be said, had no horses to speak of, decided to accept an offer made to him for the jockey's services by John W. Schorr & Son, and on January 12 he gave the Memphis turfmen a contract for Tommy's services as a jockey. It was reported at the time that that contract was for a period of two years, but it transpires that it was for one year only, the contract specifying that Hurns, as guardian for the boy, was to receive $6,000 for the jockey's work for the year.

"In the meantime Ed. Simms, of the well-known racing firm of Simms & Anderson, entered into a contract with Burns' parents for his services from the expiration of the Schorr contract until the boy shall become of age, or in other words, from January 13, 1899, until some time in the late fall of 1901, two racing years. That contract, as stated above, was entered into between Mr. Simms and Burns' father and mother, and was witnessed by an uncle and aunt of the boy, was sworn to before a notary public in Detroit (where it was drawn up), and was recorded there. To bind it Mr. Simms, according to gentlemen who are in a position to know, paid Burns' parents $2,500 on the contract, and received from them a receipt therefor. The Simms contract specifies that he (Simms) is to pay $5,000 for Burns' services, with additional fees for winning and losing mounts.

"So much for the facts in the case thus far. And now as to the prospects for a lawsuit. Schorr & Son's contract, as stated, terminates January 12, and the Simms contract goes into force the following day, or would in the ordinary course of events. Burns, however, according to report, has declared that he will not join with Simms and Anderson, as per the Simms contract with his parents; that rather than quit the Schorrs (who, it is said are anxious to retain him in their service next year), he will remain on the ground until he shall have become of age. The jockey, it is claimed, had previously expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with the contract made by Mr. Simms with his parents, and if he refuses to abide by it Mr.

BURNS' MANY EMPLOYERS.

Simms will bring suit in the United States Courts against Schorr & Son, on the ground that they have influenced the boy to refuse to conform to the contract made by him with the jockey's parents. Tom Hurns was in Cincinnati Friday, his mission being to see Mr. Simms with reference to the matter, but Simms had already gone to Chicago to see Hurns and the other parties to the case. Just what will be the outcome of the matter remains to be seen.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ben Timmons, Mike Kelly and Dan Stone are each handling a division of the Burns & Waterhouse horses. Better results will no doubt be the outcome of this arrangement than to have the whole stable under the care of one man. There are too many horses to be looked after, and one man could not give them all his attention and get the best results out of them.

The San Francisco Examiner of Nov. 8 says: "The well-known horse Moylan, while out galloping yesterday morning at Ingleside, wrenched his ankle so badly that it became necessary to destroy him. Moylan was a fast horse, but a bit faint-hearted." Moylan was taken to California by Ed Corrigan and was often a winner at Oakland and Ingleside.

While the proposed Texas racing circuit did not materialize this year it is said that definite arrangements have been made for next season, through which meetings in succession will be held at San Antonio, Waco, Sherman, Dallas, Austin, Fort Worth and Houston. Hot Springs, Ark., may also be included in this circuit.

There is no truth in the report that Hamburg will be raced. Ten mares, all in foal to English stallions, have been shipped to Mr. Daly's ranch. Among the lot was the chestnut mare Winged Foot, by Buchanan—Longshore, the property of Mr. Wm. Lakeland. This mare will also be bred to Hamburg.

Tod Sloan is a passenger on the steamer Lucania, which is due in New York Saturday. His remarkable success in England will no doubt lead to a vast amount of lionizing and interviewing when he lands in Gotham. He will probably go to San Francisco and do his usual share of riding there.

Ed P. Farrell's yearling filly The Milliner, by Ben Strome—Briar (Abe Furst's dam), is credited, with a quarter trial in 23½ over the Lexington track. Evidently she vies with her half brother in the essential quality of speed.

St. Callatine will probably be returned to her owner, Mr. McSweeney, in California. Hildreth only possessed her running qualities for 1898 so she did not figure in the list of horses he sold to Mr. Whitney.

Jockey Spencer will soon appear in the list of jockeys riding in California and be a welcome addition. Talent in the saddle has so far hardly been up to the California standard at the Frisco tracks.

Secretary McIntyre of the Brooklyn Jockey Club is also to be secretary of the Brighton Beach Association.

A GREAT FALL SALE.

Beginning Monday morning, November 23, and continuing until 400 or more are disposed of, there will be conducted at Lexington, Ky., a sale of one of the grandest collections of thoroughbred horses ever inaugurated in this country.

The catalogue embraces 150 yearlings—not the leavings of earlier sales, but valuable prospects, many of them being sisters and brothers to some of America's greatest stake horses.

The stallions to be sold are such as Lissak, the sensational two-year-old and a Derby winner at three; Buck Massie, a richly bred son of the mighty Hanover and a peerless racehorse; Spokane, a Derby winner; Forester, Frontino and others.

The horses in training include The Devil, J. H. C., Kittie B., Joe Clark, Monk Wayman, Air Blast, April's Lady, Uncle Simon and many other good winners, as well as a valuable lot of maidens that can win.

Among the brood mares to be sold is the dam of Pink Coat, winner of the American Derby and other stakes; also the dams of Hueneme, Tom Cromwell, Daily Racing Form, The Princess, Jack Star, Star Beam, Virgie Dixon and more than 100 other good winners.

Catalogues giving detailed descriptions can be obtained by addressing Woodard & Shanklin, Lexington, Ky., under whose management this grand sale will be conducted.

Winner—Br. c. by Duncombe—Lizzie B.
Start straggling. Won easily. San Venado had the foot of the party and was well ridden and lucky. He likes a route. Bonnie Ione ran a vastly improved race. Mocerito was poorly ridden and cut off twice. Watch her. Formella was short. Keep her in view. Imperious wasn't fit. He is a mudlark. Ocuru showed speed at the finish. Watch him.
Overweights—Formella, 2 pounds.
Bonnie Ione, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Mocerito, show, even.

Winner—B. h. by The Bard—By and Bye.
Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Stanza was the best of a poor lot and won despite his boy. Hush got a poor ride, too. Zufallig ran a fair race, but tired. He was kicked in the breast by Stanza at the post and that may have hurt his chances. Rush Fields came strong at the finish. Faunette was probably short. The race will do her good. Trimuda showed early speed and got the best of the start, but could not stay.

Scratched—Agatha, 105.

Overweights—Clan Campbell, 44 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Portland—Bay Bonnie.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Ernespie was the quickest to break and had clear sailing. Volandies was eased up at the end. Judging from the boys on them, Shinfane and Clarence B. were out for a work or for some future event. The latter would surely have been closer up at the finish with a good rider. Eastbrooks ran to the notch.

Overweights—Gadsden, 2 pounds.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. It was a very tight fit between the first two, and Schanken got the verdict on the nod. She was best. Georgie showed decided improvement on a better track. So did Lecelia and Crinkle. Lecelia and Georgie both tired at the end.

Winner—Ch. c. by Dandee Dinmont—Gyda.
Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly; second and third driving hard. Antiquary had the speed of the party. He was nicely ridden and held his field safe all the way. This is a good colt. Mr. Johnson seems to have gone back. He swerved badly under punishment at the head of the stretch. Banish ran a good race. With an equal break he would have been a keen contender. Phidias finished strong. Easter Card had a rough journey. So had Hanlight. The latter was badly interfered with shortly after the start. J. J. T. stopped almost to a walk.

Scratched—Harry Nutter, 102; Falsetto Jr., 110; Arthur McKnight, 108; Fontainebleau, 104; Duty, 107; Fintan, 103; Bright Night, 106; Sugden, 104.

Time, 12%, 24%, 50%, 1:03%.

Winner—B. c. by Laureate—La Tosca.
Post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Lady Dora. Dr. Parker was best of the lot. He had good luck in the big field and was well ridden. Judge Magee ran a game race. Sheik will do to watch. Lady Dora refused to break. Sir Christopher had plenty of speed but quit when pinched.

Scratched—Sensina, 107; Savilla, 107; Orenburg, 107; Al Reeves, 107; Philidore, 107; Monford, 107; Waterhouse, 107; Terrorist, 107; Cosmopolitan, 110; Improvident, 110; Deceptive, 110; Leon d'Or, 110; Spurs, 110; Brahmin, 110.

Time, 13.25, 25.38%, 51, 1:04, 1:17%, 1:44.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Jesse.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily. Dan Rice is a good horse just now with light weight up. He played with the field. Bardella did not run her race. Decanter closed stoutly.
Scratched—Loiterer, 110.
Decanter, place, even.

Time, 13.24%, 35, 50, 1:02%, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. c. by Linden—Gleam.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. Leandro could have won further off. McCue took things easy at the end. The Winner was closing very fast the last sixteenth. Cunn'gham rode a poor race. Trillo was heavily played, had speed, but tired in the stretch. Zanone would not break. O'Leary was fined for not getting away. The betting about Zanone had a bad look. The weight stopped Takanassee. Anitra ran a good race.

Scratched—Tyr Shena, 88; Premier, 116; Continental, 116; Ninety Cents, 85; Mizpah, 113; Tip Gallant, 94; Colonel Tenny, 94; Lady Dora, 100; L'Alouette, 108; Tabouret, 112.
